

sharity of government's compact entered into by address to both houses at the opening of the session, afford me great satisfaction, & the thing of which my heart is to give satisfaction to the people, & my present object is by a faithful discharge of my duty.

The confidence you express in the integrity of my endeavours, and in the sympathy of the people, does me infinite comfort, and gives me great joy, to receive & consider in that harmony which appears in the sentiments of all the branches of the government, on the importance of our commerce, and our obligation professed to it, as well as in all the other subjects recommended to your consideration, and I sincerely congratulate you, and our fellow citizens at large, on this appearance of attachment to the honour, interest, and happiness of the nation.

JOHN ADAMS,

United States, Nov. 1797.

For the State of Maryland.

A FEW families of NEGROES, consisting of two women and four children, all 65, who are fit for service; one man, four girls, one girl, three boys, two fit for service; one ditto, two ditto, both boys; one man, his wife and child, unlikely negroes as they are in America; if they have all had the small-pox except a few small-pocks.

A few weeks ago.

GEORGE SMITH,

Gilbert county, Lyon's creek, Decr. 2, 1797.

COMMITTEE DIVIDED IN CUSTODY, AS A RUNAWAY, ON

MARY POWERS, she is of short stature, and chunky built, of light complexion, and short bushy hair, but commonly wears a braid; her clothing is a striped cotton gown and purple petticoat, cotton stockings, and stuff shoes, with gold ear-bobs, gold rings, and sundry other things of that kind. She left the same into Baltimore in the brig Polly, captain Delano, and was sold to Mr. Reiter Seabrooks, of M'Alister's town, in the state of Pennsylvania, who sold her to Mr. Alder Smith. Her master is desirous to come and take her away in two months from the above date, or she will be sold for her prison fees and other expences, according to law.

RICHARD HARWOOD, Sheriff of Anne Arundel county.

November 25, 1797.

To be SOLD, agreeably to the last will and testament of captain ROBERT SANDER, late of Anne Arundel county, deceased, on Friday the 22^d day of December next, for CASH.

THE late dwelling PLANTATION of the said deceased, containing about two hundred and twenty acres of land. Also will be sold, on the same day, all the personal property of said deceased, consisting of one negro woman and child, household and kitchen furniture, horses, hogs, cattle and sheep, plan-ation utensils, a quantity of Indian corn, rye, wheat, oats, corn fodder, etc. &c. &c. &c.

DAVID STEUART, Executor.

The sale to commence precisely at o'clock.

N. B. All persons indebted to the above estate are once more desirous to make payment, and those having claims to bring them in.

November 29, 1797.

In CHANCERY, November 23, 1797.

David M'Laughlin,

against Richard Carlson, and the representatives of M'Laughlin, and William M'Laughlin, as trustees of William Hammond, on the nineteenth day of March, one thousand seven hundred and ninety-three, for conveying unto the complainant all his the said William Hammond's half share, and dividend of the estate, real and personal, which he doth now or any hereafter inherit, in consequence of the death of his nephew, Thomas Hughes Hammond, in Anne Arundel county, and all those tracts of land lying in Hampshire county, Virginia, which were conveyed by James Kelso and James Wilson to said Hammond, on the ninth day of October, seventeen hundred and ninety-nine, and one tract of land in Accomack county, Virginia, which was conveyed by a certain

John Trask to the said William Hammond about the twenty-ninth day of May, seventeen hundred and ninety-nine, the bill states, that the said William M'Laughlin, since the execution of the said deed, hath departed this life, leaving no known heirs; it is thereupon, opinion of the complainant, adjudged and ordered, that he cause a copy of this order to be inserted at least once in each of three successive weeks in the City Gazette before the last day of December next, that the said Richard Carlson, and the heirs of the said William M'Laughlin, if any such there be, may have notice of the complainant's application to this court, and of the object of his bill, and may be wanted to appear here, on or before the first Tuesday in May next, to show cause wherefore a decree should not pass in prayed.

SAMUEL HARVEY HOWARD,

Recr. Cur. Com.

NOV. 18, 1797.

A PETITION will be presented to the next general Assembly of the State of Maryland, praying an act to authorize the levy court of St. Mary's county to assess annually a sum of money on said county to be paid for the support of my daughter Elizabeth Goodrich, an idiot, aged seventeen years.

MARY GOODRICH.

October 1, 1797.

CHARLES L. NEVITT.

Annapolis, November 20, 1797.

CHARLES L. NEVITT.